

Care for Cordyline

Written by RSF

Monday, February 02, 2009 - 21:51 - Last revised Tuesday, February 03, 2009

Care for Cordyline

- Plant in full sun to part shade, in well -drained fertile soil.
- Let the plant dry out between waterings. If leaf tips begin to brown, water more frequently.
- Fertilize every 2 to 3 weeks from spring to fall.
- Can overwinter the plant inside. Place in near east, west or south exposure. Do not fertilize in the winter.